

A detailed architectural floor plan of Suite # 320, which is a diamond-shaped room. The plan shows the room's perimeter with a double-line border. Along the left and bottom-left sides, there are multiple parallel lines representing windows or glass partitions. Small square symbols are placed at various points along the walls, likely indicating door locations or specific wall features. The text 'Suite # 320' and '884 sq ft' is centered within the room's boundary.
